

THE RENNISONS.

Elk Lick Furnishes Two Victims for Marshal McKenna.

Dick and James Rensison, father and son, were Thursday arraigned before Commissioner Jeffries at Clinton on the charge of bootlegging—selling whiskey without sanction of law—in the vicinity of Elk Lick Springs. Uncle Jack 'fessed up, but claimed that his son was innocent. He was released on bond for appearance at Jefferson next month.

The Rensisons have been having troubles and making history at a lively rate during the past few months, but they did not appear to have a care in the world as they wandered through the streets Thursday night, one on each side of Mrs. Rensison, who was thoroughly at home on Main street.

At the instance of Jack Rensison, a warrant was issued for the arrest of a man named Martin, who is charged, in the complaint with having stolen $300 in money from Old Man Rensison, residing at Elk Lick.
